Laying Foundation Stone At Ribstone

A very interesting ceremony took place on Saturday October 14th, at Ribstone, when the corner stone of the Presbyterian church was laid in the presence of a large number of people. A devotional service preceded the ceremony, Rev. Mitchelson, assisted by Rev. W. Milar, officiating. After the scripture reading Rev. W. Mitchelson epitomized the history of the congregation since its inception stating services were first held in the Old Ribstone school, about 1918. Later, in 1913, the services were held in the municipal hall at Ribstone (this use of the hall being granted free of charge by the municipality) and it had now become necessary to build their own church building. During this period of growth the following ministers had had charge of the work of the growing church. Revs. Gourlay, McAllister, Mahon, Strong, Davis, Drummond, Hughes, Nicholson, Jamieson and Mitchelson. Of these Drummond sacrificed his life for the empire in the great war. Since Rev. Mitchelson had been in charge the services had been held continuously except for 6 services. Much of the progress of the church was due to the energies of the board of managers, the ladies aid organized in 1920, and the building committee.

Rev. Mitchelson and Rev. Milar delivered appropriate addresses, and a collection of $71.50 was taken.

At the conclusion the following votes of thanks were proposed and passed with great enthusiasm:

to the visiting ministers for their assistance Mrs. Crittenden, Mrs. Heasman.

to friends and subscribers for their financial assistance: Mrs. Etson, Mr. Russell to the men who have given their work gratuitously: Mrs. Dell, Mrs. Heasman to the minister who performed the ceremony of laying the corner stone: Mrs. R. Morrison; Mr. Crittenden.

The site for the church and manse was donated by Mr. L. L. Pound.

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbours for their kind and timely assistance on the occasion of our fire in September, and we wish to thank all who have since assisted by subscriptions and otherwise.

Relief For The Small Dairyman

The Board of Railway Commissioners for Canada met in Edmonton recently. Among other matters up for hearing was the application of the Alberta Dairyman's Association for a lower express rate on three gallon cream cans. At present the minimum charge is on a five gallon can. This arrangement penalizes the small producers. There are 55,000 cream shippers in the province, the majority of them shippers of small lots. The commissioners gave the dairyman and express companies one month in which to reach a satisfactory arrangement. Failing to do this the commission will draw up a tariff.

Pay Your Taxes

Taxes provide the lifeblood of your community. If taxes were not paid, your schools would close, road work would cease, hospitals would close their doors, all community life would come to a standstill. Your first duty as a good citizen is to pay your taxes and if at all possible to pay them when the tax bills are sent out.

Every day of delay in payment of taxes puts an additional burden upon the men you have chosen to look after the affairs of your municipality, adds to the difficulty of financing and the cost of administration. Sooner or later all taxes have to be paid. WHY NOT PAY YOURS NOW?

Department of Municipal Affairs, Regina.

Wedding Bells

SIMPSON- COLLETTE

The marriage of Eleanor Margaret Christie Simpson to Ernest Irene Collette was celebrated at the St Anthony Rectory, Edmonton at ten o'clock in the forenoon of Tuesday, October 3rd. Rev. Father James C. McGuigan officiating. The bride was dressed in a charming brown braid cloth cloth velvet hat. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses. In accordance with the wishes of the contracting parties the ceremony was a private one, the bride being accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Simpson. The happy couple leaving for one week honeymoon. They were accorded a good hearty chivari on their return to Chauvin.

We are but voicing the wishes of their many friends in this district in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Teachers Alliance

A meeting of the Edgerton Local of the Alberta Teachers' Alliance took place at the home of Mrs. W. Murdoch, on Friday, October 13th at 8 p.m. Several teachers of the district were present, and various phases of the work of the Alliance were discussed.

It was decided that meetings should be held monthly during the coming winter, and it is hoped that all teachers of the district will make it their business to attend whenever possible.

Miss Vella Jackson was elected President to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Helen Carswell, who recently went to Edgerton as Secretary.

Miss V. Jackson, Miss V. Brunner, Miss V. D. Ptolemy, and Mr. E. L. Smith addressed the members, and the meeting adjourned at 9 p.m. Mrs. Murdoch then served refreshments to those present.

The teachers wish to thank Mrs. Murdoch for her kindness in throwing open her home for the occasion, and for her generous hospitality, which was much appreciated.

LIVING IN THE COUNTRY

The thing of living in the country is great.

First, all you need is a place to live in; and then a horse and a cow and some pigs and chickens.

Then, all you need is some feed for the horse and cow and pigs and chickens, and a strong man—

But that's next: A strong man to feed them.

Then you need to read all the farmer books and government bulletins and learn just how things should be done.

Then you need the nerve to go and tell your man how to do everything, and the courage to watch him do it another way and ignore your instructions. After that, all you need is the gall to pretend that you did it, when a bean comes up the way it was intended.

But with all that, it's the life; and a fellow could stand it if it wasn't for the mortgages and paying the man and buying the feed.

A judge on a certain circuit was accustomed to doze during the speeches of counsel. On one occasion counsel was addressing him on the subject of certain town commissioners' rights to obtain water from a river, water being scarce at the time.

During his speech he made use of the words, "But, my lord, we must have water—we must have water."

Whereupon the judge woke up, exclaiming, "Well, just a little drop; I like it fairly strong."

"My face is my fortune," she said. "Well," he replied, "never mind that. The richest people aren't always the happiest."

Alberta Liquor Act

Canadian Press

Calgary, Oct 7.—Alberta will have an opportunity of expressing an opinion in a new way on the liquor act within the next two months. It was stated Saturday, from the very best authority, that the Alberta Hotelmen's Association has prepared a new act, now in the hands of the printer, entitled "The Alberta Temperance Act," under which it will be legal to sell real strength beer in hotel dining rooms, clubs and on trains.

The Hotelmen's Association is taking steps to organize a petition under the Direct Legislation Act which means that the government has the option, when presented with a petition carrying the legal requirement of names, of passing the bill as it is presented to them or giving a plebiscite within 90 days of the close of the next session.

The new act, the first proofs of which were in the hands of hotelmen on Saturday, provides for nothing but the sale of beer, under conditions vision for the sale of whiskey and does not interfere with the present liquor act, under which liquor is sold by the government vendor to druggists who in turn retail it on registered physicians' prescriptions.

Hotelmen who are behind the move claim that their act will provide a revenue of $750,000 a year for the Alberta government, this being raised by a tax per gallon on all beer sold in the province. Under the present liquor act the most successful year netted the government a profit of $800,000.

How The Fordney Tariff Affects Western Canada

Western Canadian producers will be interested in some of the provisions of the new United States Tariff. This high wall tariff is certainly exclusive, and to a large extent will affect Western Canada trade in a detrimental way. A glance through the tariff leaves the impression that it was framed with the idea of shutting out Western Canada products. The following quotations will show the position under the old tariff and the increases under the new one:

Dairy Products- Butter, oleomargarines etc. increased from 2½ to 8 per pound; cheese from 20 per cent ad val. to 5c per pound; milk free under old tariff, now 2½c per gallon; Cream, free to 20c per gal.; milk condensed or evaporated, free, to 1c per pound.

Cattle—weighing less than 1050 lbs. free under old tariff, now 1½c per pound; weighing over 1050 lbs., free, now 2c per pound.

Sheep—Formerly free, now $2. per head.

Wool—Formerly free, now 11c to 31c per pound.

Edgerton Echoes

Mrs. Davidson, of Winter, Sask. is visiting at the Maddock's home.

We learn that Frank Hoehn has sold his farm at Doley to J. W. Connelly and is to move to Washington where he intends to settle.

J. Connelly, our local blacksmith for the past four years, has bought the Hoehn farm and intends to move on to it on the 1st of the month. Mr. Connelly feels that he has spent long enough at this most strenuous occupation of blacksmithing and is to try his hand at a less strenuous one. We wish him success in his new venture.

Bob Leggett is taking over Mr. Connelly's shop and house and is to move in as soon as he can. Bob is a general favorite and we are pleased to welcome him and hope he will enjoy the same success as Mr. Connelly.

Mrs. W. T. Hays was taken to the hospital at Edmonton last week. Mr. Hays also accompanied her to Edmonton.

Little June Spornitz was on the sick list last week but she is now fully recovered.

We are sorry to report the death of John Edward, the little son of George Hallett, at the early age of 18 months. He had been sick for a considerable time and all the skill of the local physicians was unavailing.

A number of Chauvin and Wainwright Oddfellows co-mingled with their brethren of that ilk at Edgerton last Thursday evening. A very enjoyable evening was spent but the success of the whole thing was marred by the inability of the Wainwright postmaster to pilot his big boat back home. In just such matters as this, of course Slim & Dick was requisitioned and we believe that Dick whisked the whole back home to Wainwright with Charlie Bransgrove's limousine. You notice we said "whisked" which is the correct word. Ask Mac, he will be able to tell.

Through the efforts and advance agency of Doc Herrington, Unity Orchestra journeyed to our burg last Friday to dispense some of the latest jazz creations to the amouirists of the terpsichorean art, and the result was a complete success. Crowds came from everywhere but we must concede the palm to Fabyan for we saw an honest-to-goodness White-truck load of enthusiastic dancers from this, the latest oil metropolis. That's the way to come.

The Ladies Aid are putting on a be nice to get the privilege of that chicken supper in the Jorgensen office with so many school me'ams. He will likely blame us for this paragraph but we can't help it.

Dated at Marsden, Sask, this 26th day of Sept. 1922
J. BRADLEY, Secy-Treas

Three women were drinking tea together, and the first said:—
“George and I have been married for twenty-eight years, and in all that time there has never been an unkind word—no, not even an unkind thought—to mar our perfect happiness.”
The second woman was tremendously impressed.
“My goodness, I wish I could say that!” she cried.
The third woman smiled, and said:—
“Well why don't you? Jane did.”
Visitor: “This isn't a very good picture of your little baby brother, is it?”
Five year old Alice: “No, ma'am, But then, he isn't a very good baby.”

Letters To The Editor

A THRESHING PROBLEM

Dear Sir:

Recently you published a thresherman's account of his threshing exploits, and asked if it could be done. Judging from the facts given in the statement this to my reckoning is how it would have to work out, as regards crop return and capacity of machine per day. These two items, you may notice were omitted to be stated. Now for the statement:

Local thresherman claims to be handling 125 loads of 250 sheaves each, through a 22-24 separator, each working day of 14 hours, with only five teamsters—no stook or machine pitchers.”

Now, Mr. Editor let us try to work this out on a 20 bushel to the acre crop. That is allowing each load to represent an acre of ground for this allowed to be a fair average for this year. At the end of the 14 hour day, he, and his valiant little 22-22 separator and teamsters would have 2500 bushels to their credit, which grain charged at 12cts. a bushel to the farmer would net the thresherman $300 for one days work!

As a result this requires more than the traditional pinch of salt to make us swallow it, therefore let's take an acre, (plus the same hectic energy), this time the end of his 14 hours finds him with 1975 in the granary at night. But as that result is more even than the makers of that capacity of thresher claim for it, we must in the interests of common sense, seek a still lower average return from these 125 loads of 250 sheaves each. Therefore let us slide down to 10 bushels per acre. This time we get 1250 bushels. This Mr. Editor may be coming closer to the valiant outfit's capacity, but I still beg leave to have my doubts. For one reason the most careful, practical and diligent thresherman ever I knew was well content, if at the end of his day he had put that amount in the farmer's granary, and he had an outfit of eight teams with stook and machine pitchers, as well.

The only conclusion therefore, is that your thresherman must have been working in crops averaging 3 bushels per acre, or less, which makes his statement look like a case of great cry and little wool, as Paddy said when he clipped the sow.

But, Mr. Editor, what I would like to know if he isn't too worn out with beating the record,—or blowing his own horn,—is, how many days did he keep it up, and was the dinner hour included in the 14 hours? Or if there was no such hour how did he keep his gang from going on strike?

Yours truly,

Observations Made On Our Trip To British Columbia

Vernon, our destination, we found to be a charming town of 4000 population. It had broad streets lined with good buildings and beautiful trees. Centreing round the depot were many large fruit packing warehouses. On the main street were a number of up to date stores, including a branch of the Hudson's Bay Co.. There were several good hotels providing excellent accommodation. On the dining room tables were set large dishes of assorted fruits as a supplement to the menu—you may judge we appreciated this item, and did our duty.

Whilst the press convention was in session the ladies of Vernon added as hostesses to the ladies of the visiting parties, and entertained them lavishly. Each member of our party, ladies and gentlemen alike had been furnished with a white satin badge, on which was printed the convention title with a rosy apple for an emblem; in addition to which the name of the wearer was inscribed. These badges formed an open "sesame" to all kinds of hospitalities. The Vernon folks lived each other in their desire to provide enjoyment and interest to us as visitors. At the conclusion of the convention Friday afternoon, a fleet of cars awaited to take us for drives over the district, and great care was given to explaining everything we saw and also to answering our many questions. We were shown the famous Coldstream ranch—one of the larger pioneer fruit farms of this district, its hundreds of acres now being subdivided into smaller ones.

Irrigation is general throughout the Okanagan district of which Vernon stands at the head. Water is carried for long distances through long flumes. These feed smaller flumes to supply individual farms. Each land owner takes his turn according to schedule and the water is allowed to flow on until the land is saturated. Later at the time the land is drying out another good soaking is given. This is found to be more advantageous than a larger number of lesser waterings. These irrigation schemes are chiefly municipal ventures. The soil is very light in color, almost white. It's texture is as fine as flour. Without irrigation it is barren. With irrigation it is remarkably prolific.

To pass through mile after mile of heavily laden orchards was indeed a feast to the eyes. We confess we had a great desire to become just ordinary thieves. In fact when our driver had a little tire trouble we improved the occasion by picking the best apples we could find—My, Boy, Didn't they didn't they taste a whole lot better than from the box. Besides apples, there were apricots, peaches, plums, pears galore. Loganberries and the small fruits plenty—as far along the valleys as the eye could see—you do not need to mention the Garden of Eden to us, now we've seen this bit of God's earth.

Along the road came an endless procession of racks, wagons, motor lorries with trailers bringing in the boxes of fruit. And say they have some good roads well packed with crushed rocks which make durable and level highways.

Our drive terminated at the beach of the Long Lake, where the Country Club have beautiful grounds at the water's edge. We found a splendid boat house and pavilion with all the accommodation for boating, bathing, entertainment and dancing. On the lawn stood a table bearing a load of all descriptions of fruit from cantaloupes downward, with an invitation from the fruit growers of the district to partake—we did. Looking around we noticed some grading, and were informed that this was part of the work for the Canadian National line from Kamloops on which work has for the present been stopped. We were entertained to supper alfresco fashion on the lawn, after which we had a free and easy sing-song at which our good friend Huntingford of Wainwright naturally became leader. The party then divided, some to the dance and others to the theatre.

Mindful of the fact that some of our readers would desire to know more about this land and its opportunities we, as far as we were able, sought to learn details. We found as we already said, that un-irrigated land is worthless, and that other land is priced from $250 to $1500 per acre. It cost the grower from eighty cents to one dollar and ten cents to grow and to pack a box of fruit and get it to the warehouse. The fruit buying companies of which there are a large number, of which there are many, will advance to the grower up to sixty per cent of his estimated crop to help him through the growing season. Thus if the final price for fruit is low the grower after delivering his crop may find he owes the company money. A grower may sell his fruit in the orchard for a lump sum and the buyer picks and packs the fruit; or, the company will buy the fruit outright on delivery to the warehouse; or, the grower may use the company as an agent. These fruit companies will take big chances—they must—one year they will make big money, another year they lose heavily. In fact, we reached the conclusion that the whole game—for grower and dealer alike—is one big gamble. Wheat, we all know, is a gamble, but in our estimation fruit is worse yet.

There are phases of life in British Columbia that compare more than favorably with our own prairie life. We would mention the nearness of home to home owing to the holdings being of ten, twenty or thirty acres for the most part. In some districts the rural home enjoys a water system and the electric light. The standard of living is perhaps higher than our own, and the country homes are of a better standard than ours. Yet with it all—charmed as we were—we both felt, as my wife aptly put it, that "I would not come here to live unless I had lots of money, and then I would go elsewhere" (meaning England, of which she was thinking, for the familiar old flowers, forget-me-nots, hollyhocks, and others together with the ferns and hops had deeply stirred memories of old days). Pardon me, reader, one can't always be strictly logical when setting forth impressions.
